

Ethics and Governance of Energy Technology

The role of consumers, citizens and policy-makers for future sustainable energy

Draft Program, Subject to change
08-01-2016

January, 15th 2016

(All talks will be in the Traverse building, Dorgelo room, unless stated otherwise)

- 10.00 Registration & Coffee.
- 10.30 Opening and Welcome (Andreas Spahn, Taskforce Sustainability 3TU).
- 10.45 Philip Brey (U Twente): Ethics and Energy – A research Agenda
- 11.00 Thomas Pfister \(Zeppelin University\): Energy transformations, cultural change, and epistemic governance.
- 12.00 Lunch break – Traverse canteen.
- 13.00 First presentation session
 - 13.00 Udo Pesch (TU Delft) et al.: The publics and their pathologies: Responsible innovation of technologies with local impacts by creating 'local publics'
 - 13.30 Jantine Schröder (Belgian Nuclear Research Centre SCK.CEN) and Gunter Bombaerts (TU/e): A constructivist perspective on participatory decision making on nuclear waste management in Belgium.
- 14.00 Small coffee break
- 14.15 M.V. Ramana \(Princeton University\): Ethical Concerns Regarding Nuclear Energy: Weapons, Accidents, Wastes, Costs, and Democracy
- 15.15 Coffee break
- 15.45 Second presentation session
 - 15.45 Erik Laes (VITO) and Gunter Bombaerts (TU/e): The role of the social sciences in sustainable development from a Foucauldian perspective
 - 16.15 Robert Jan-Geerts (U Twente): Philosophy and Energy Transition
- 16.45 Celine Kermisch \(Université Libre de Bruxelles\): Is it relevant to refer to « future generations » when analyzing HLRW management strategies?
- 18.00 Departure for conference dinner at "Sri Ganesh", Kruisstraat 92A.

January, 16th 2015

(All talks will be in the IPO building, IPO lounge, second floor, unless stated otherwise)

(9.15 3TU Energy and Sustainability Taskforce meeting. Only for 3TU taskforce members.
– IPO 0.11)

10.00 Anders Melin \(Malmö University\): The Capability Approach as a theoretical framework for analyzing ethical issues connected to electricity production

11.00 Short coffee break

11.15 Third presentation session

11.15 Nick Verkade (TU/e): Flexibility of consumption: domestic energy practices in a local energy cooperative

11.45 Anna Butenko and Kati Cseres (UvA): The regulatory consumer: prosumer-driven local energy production initiatives

12.15 Lunch – IPO hall (ground floor)

13.15 Martijntje Smits: TBA

14:15 Short coffee break

14:30 Fourth presentation session

14.30 Taylor Stone (TU Delft): Towards a Darker Future: Values and Nighttime Lighting.

15.00 Johanna Höffken and Auke Pols (TU/e): Developing and implementing smart grids in India

15:30 Nicole Huijts (TU Delft): Ethical and instrumental considerations by the industry in anticipation to public responses

16.00 Closing remarks and drinks